

Irish Red Cross

---

IRISH RED CROSS

Training Progression Pathway

---

IRC TRAINING COURSE

- Externally / Jointly accredited
    - Cardiac First Response (CFR)
      - Community
      - Advanced
    - First Aid Response (FAR)
    - Emergency First Responder (EFR)
    - Emergency Medical Technician (EMT)
-

Irish Red Cross

---

IRC COURSES

- Internally accredited
    - Induction Course (on line)
    - Safe Guarding Training (on line)
    - Stress Awareness
    - Practical First Aid
    - Ambulance Procedures
    - Radio Operators Course Level 1
    - Safer Patient Handling Course
    - Ambulance Driving Induction Course
-

TRAINING PROGRESSION PATHWAY

- Presents the pathway for members to further their training and receive their qualifications
  - There are a number of different pathways for members who join with qualifications
  - Each pathway has a number of levels and one level must be completed before progressing to the next
  - Ambulance Driving Induction is only for members who apply to go on the IRC Drivers panel
-

TRAINING PROGRESSION (1)

TRAINING PROGRESSION (2)

---

TRAINING PROGRESSION (3)

---

TRAINING PROGRESSION (4)

EXTERNAL QUALIFICATIONS

- IRC recognises appropriate external qualifications
  - New members must present copies of their certificates and other supporting documentation
  - All documentation should be passed to the Area Training Officer for filing and forwarding to Head Office if necessary
  - New externally qualified members will be mentored by experienced IRC members initially
-

IRC INSTRUCTOR LEVELS

IRC INSTRUCTOR TRAINING PROGRESSION

Irish Red Cross

---

IRC INSTRUCTOR TRAINING DURATION

Course	Duration
Instructional Techniques Level 1	1 Day
CFRCI	2 Days + mentoring
Instructional Techniques Level 2	1 Day
FARI	2 Day + mentoring
CFRAI	½ Day
EFRI	3 Days

---